A Tribute to Wayne Duzan
Bible Class Director
Sherwood Church of Christ

Wayne Duzan had a heart for Sherwood. I don't know of a better tribute to his memory than his own words written in 1991 describing his view of the church.

What A Church!

A little taste of heaven. Christians saved by the blood of the Lamb, bound together in love. From varied backgrounds, with different talents; a medley of personalities, all united in the truth and Spirit which bind them together; set free from sin and death.

Common goals, common hopes, common dreams; a happy journey shared together. Sympathy, empathy, patience and forbearance; moments shared in joy and tears. Excitement, energy, busily engaged; zeal guided by knowledge of God's holy Word. Cooperation, pooling talents, resources combined; subdued egos, suppressed opinions; blessed peace.

Respected shepherds taking charge; grateful followers content to be sheep. Protected from evil without and within; well fed and watered, growing and maturing, healthy and happy; ever improving, gaining strength.

Bathed in blood to become white as snow. Beacons of hope in a dark, dark world. A safe harbor for shipwrecked souls. Reaching out, inviting others; bringing them in on God's terms to love and nurture; to share our lives, our joy, our peace, our salvation. Oh, what a church!

(Written by Wayne Duzan January 22, 1991)
