THANK YOU

I would like to thank all the family at Sherwood for helping me raise my three boys. The one constant in their world over the past 12 years has been the family at Sherwood. You have always been there for them as prayer partners, youth sponsors, Sunday school teachers and always making them feel welcomed when they come back for a visit. I wanted you to know that Ethan is now the Youth minister at Westhill Church of Christ in Cleburne, Texas. I think he would appreciate a note from any one at Sherwood. His address is Ethan Blackstone, 406 Eerie Street, Cleburne, Texas 76031. Again, thank you for helping my boys become the Christian men they are.
Because He lives!
Thomas

FINGER FOOD FELLOWSHIP

Raul & Kim Solis are with us today. Raul will be speaking tonight at the evening service. Following the service we will all meet in the MPB for fellowship. Bring finger foods - sandwiches, chips, desserts, etc.

NOTE FROM MADGE

Dear Family at Sherwood,
I can't begin to tell you what a blessing it has been to receive the cards, letters, notes and messages of love from all of you! Every day, I have some sweet message from an individual, or a group, or from Everyone(!) there - saying I am missed, or that I'm being thought of and prayed for often, or just a note saying I am loved! This has been such an encouragement to me as I transition "home" as being here instead of there. My new home is lovely and convenient, I meet fine new people every day, and am making friends. And Amy & her family are an additional blessing. I do miss all of you, think of you often and pray for you daily!
With all my love, Madge
